

Choices for a Healthy Life

Some Medicaid members may not join a health plan.

Some Medicaid members may not join a health plan. They will continue getting their health services the way they do now.

Here is a list of people who may not join a health plan:

- People who need special medical services or live in an institution
- People in Medicaid who qualify for Medicare
- People in Medicaid who are part of an Indian Tribe that the government approves
- People who qualify for Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Children eighteen (18) years of age or younger who are in foster care or another out-of-state home
- Children (18) years of age or younger who are getting foster care or adoption assistance under Title IV-E of the Social Security Administration
- Children in the Children's Medical Services Program
- Children in the Georgia Pediatric Program
- Children with care coordination by the MATCH program (Multi-Agency Team for Children)
- People in Long Term Care
- People in the SOURCE program (Service Options Using Resources in Community Environments)
